SKIP COMPUTERS AND HIT THE HAY.

On Tuesday July 26, we went to Rio Vista Beach. It was quite an exciting trip. The beach was warm and so was the water. All of the people really had a good time several activities we participated in were a soccer game, swimming, walking on the beach, shell collecting and just listening to the radio and relaxing. After we returned we had a free swim. For our late evening activity of the day we watched the movie "OH, GOD" it was quite a funny movie, as it starred George Burns and John Denver.

On Wednesday, August 3, we visited the De Young Museum, the Aquarium, the Planatarium and the Exploritorium. We saw many amazing things at many different places. Of the highlights that I can remember, Patrick dropped his camera in the Alligator pond. After a while it was fished out.

Later at the Exploritorium Matt seemed to missplace his counselor. Stiefen you're not supposed to loose them.

For our late evening activity, we watched 007 in action, James Bond in For Your Eyes Only. Roger Moore was at his best in the movie. It was a well chosen movie and well enjoyed by all.
